Remembrance...

Austine Yvonne Jackson was born August 29, 1941 in Chattanooga, Tennessee to William and Alice Petty.

She received her education in the Michigan school systems as she graduated from North Western High School in Detroit, Michigan.

She worked in the medical field for Sinai Hospital in Detroit, Michigan for 25 years where she eventually retired. After leaving the medical field, she worked in registry and reception at a law office in San Francisco for several years until she started her own business. Austine began working in the childcare industry as she opened her own daycare services in Richmond, California in 1989. Later she transitioned her business with her daughter Yolanda's daycare known as Smiling Star Childcare in 2000, where she was affectionately known as "Granny" by her grandchildren who attended and all of the children that she taught along the way. She worked with her daughter at Smiling Star for 20 years and retired in 2020. Austine found enjoyment in spending time with her family and her church family. She also had a green thumb, nurturing her plants like a parent would nurture a child. She was a friend to many and was loved by all who came in contact with her. Austine was a mother to not only her kids but to her grandchildren, nephews, nieces and cousins. As the eldest sister of her siblings she also helped take good care of her own brothers and sisters. Austine was a true encourager, always reminding her family to give their lives to Christ and that they could be whatever they wanted.

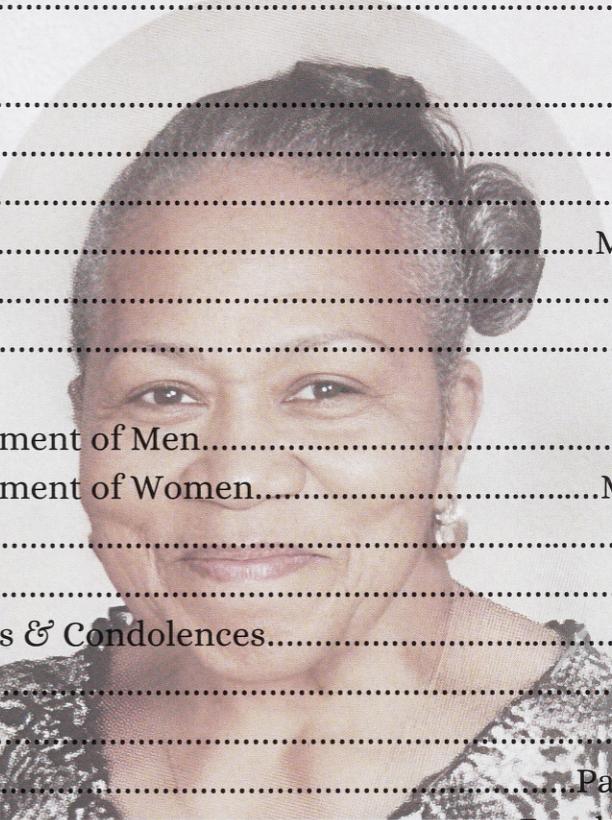

Austine was no stranger to Holiness. She was raised in a Godly household by her mother and father. In 1986, she united with the McGlothen Temple Church of God in Christ under the leadership of Bishop Clarence J. Davis. She continued to serve faithfully under Senior Administrative Assistant John A. Jennings and Pastor Willie C. Haynes, III. She served faithfully in multiple capacities. She served as Vice President and President of the Christian Women's Council and President of the Pastor's Aide. She also served as an Usher Board member on the Local, District and State Usher Boards. Mother Jackson, being a woman who believed in the power of prayer was faithful to the 5am First Sunday Morning Prayer, 7pm Prayer and Anointing Monday Night Prayer, 7pm Wednesday and 8am Saturday Women's Prayer. She was also a Trustee Board Member of the McGlothen Temple. Mother Jackson loved the Conventions and often attended the California Northwest State Convocation, Worker's Meeting, Usher Board Convention and the Church of God in Christ National Convocation in Memphis, Tennessee.

Austine was preceded in death by husband Alfred Jackson, mother Alice Petty, father William Petty, son Elder Nathaniel Jackson, daughter Belinda Petty and brother Thilbert Petty.

Austine Yvonne Jackson is survived by loving sisters Sherry Petty and Bobbie Smith, brothers William (Linda) Petty and Robert (Rita) Petty, daughter Yolanda Cochran, sons Carl Jackson Sr. and Elder Phynis Hall Sr., daughter-in-laws Ivy Bushnell Jackson, Murender Carter, Millicent Hall, son-in-law Keefe Cochran, grandchildren Carl Jackson Jr., Justin Jackson, Austin Jackson, Nate Jackson, Phynis Hall Jr., Cameron Hall, Ashton Hall, Shania Cochran, Kameron Cochran, Devin Cochran and countless nephews, nieces, cousins and dear friends. Mother Austine Jackson will also be greatly missed by Pastor & 1st Lady Haynes, the entire McGlothen Temple Church Family and the Church of God in Christ.
